Member is an individual who has been a member of BMANA-CC by category definition.

Related professionals are individuals who do not belong to BMANA-CC and are not physicians, nurse practitioners, or physician assistants, and want to attend Convention for educational programs to enhance their professional knowledge (i.e., a medical student, residents, pharmacists, nurses, public health professionals, academic faculty members, etc.).

A Guest is an accompanying person who is not an BMANA-CC member (and not eligible to be) and not a related professional, and is attending the Convention in a social capacity only. Guest registration allows for Cultural Exhibit Hall access only and does not include attendance at any education sessions (oral or poster). Guest registration is offered so that friends or family members of registered attendees may accompany them socially in the Exhibit Hall and at special events (tickets may be required for certain special events or receptions). Guests must be accompanied by a fully registered attendee at all times.

How to Register

BMANA-CC offers two easy ways to register for the convention in advance—online Website: <http://www.bmanacc.org> and by mail.

Raleigh, NC 27612-2676

Cancellation requests received before April 1 will be refunded, less a $25 processing fee, prior to the Convention. The cancellation fee is a processing fee and cannot be waived.

Badges and Contact Information

Name badges will be issued to all registered attendees and are required to enter all areas of the Convention. Badges are generated based upon the information provided on your registration form, so please be sure to indicate your name and organization as you would like it to appear on your badge. You will have the opportunity to preview and edit your badge information onsite at the registration desk.

Correspondence, including your registration confirmation and receipts, will be sent to the e-mail address provided on the registration form.

ADA Information

BMANA-CC is committed to making the Convention accessible to all individuals. If you have a disability, as identified by the Americans with Disabilities Act, and anticipate needing assistance while at the Convention, please contact the convention convener.

Privacy Policy

BMANA-CC does not sell the contact information of Convention registrants. We do provide some information to exhibiting companies and sponsors/donors for their marketing purposes; they are entitled to one contact either before or after the Convention. You may opt out of sharing your information with Convention Exhibitors during the registration process. Please note that doing so does not remove you from any lists that may be managed by BMANA-CC. To remove yourself from these lists, you must send a written notice to the BMANA-CC organization address listed above.
